

The Lula Owl Gloyne Person of Excellence Award | Nomination Form

Nurse | Veteran | Beloved Woman | Trailblazer

The Cherokee Indian Hospital Foundation will present the second annual Lula Owl Gloyne Person of Excellence Award during the 12th Annual CIHF Gala on July 15, 2023. This award will honor a deserving individual whose actions and contributions to the healthcare of the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians.

Nominees are expected to reflect the following core values:

Contributions to Healthcare: has made significant contributions to the advancement of healthcare on behalf of the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians

Selflessness: acting in the best interests of others and promotes their health & wellness.

Accomplished: Nominee has risen above and beyond the call of duty to achieve results. This includes educational and professional achievements and serving as role model and mentor to others.

Resilient: works to advocate on behalf of others to ensure the prosperity of the next seven generations of the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians.

Visionary: has demonstrated forward thinking and a vision for the future of healthcare for the EBCI - regardless of barriers.

I hereby nominate: _____

Address of nominee: _____

Phone # of nominee: _____

Email for nominee: _____

Please attach to this nomination form along with a letter of recommendation to the Cherokee Indian Hospital Foundation Board that describes your nominee and reason for their nomination in detail.

Name of Nominator: _____ Phone # of nominator: _____

Please return this form to:

Cherokee Indian Hospital Foundation, 1 Hospital Rd, Cherokee, NC 28719 or ciha.foundation@cherokeehospital.org.